

CANDY MINUTE TO WIN IT GAMES

TART TOWER

Items needed:

A roll of Sweetarts

Tongs or chopsticks (optional)

Set up:

None

Instructions:

In this challenge, a player must unwrap and re-stack an entire roll of Sweetarts free standing on the table in 60 seconds or less. A steady hand and patience will be needed, but don't be too patient. You only have a minute to win the prize.

For older kids, up the challenge by making them use chopsticks or tongs to stack the candies.

Spiritual application:

Use this with a lesson on patience or perseverance.

DON'T BITE THE SKITTLES

Items needed:

A blindfold
A dozen of Skittles
A dozen of regular M&Ms

Set up:

Mix the M&Ms and Skittles together on a table. Blindfold the lone contestant.

Instructions:

In this challenge a player must use sense of feel to sort the M&Ms from the Skittles. Using your sense of touch, feel the candies in front of you and sort the 12 Skittles from the 12 M&Ms. You have 60 seconds to complete this challenge.

Spiritual application:

Use this lesson in connection with a message on wisdom/discernment, or a message about avoiding sin.

TIC TAC SHAKE

Items needed:

A headband
A pack of Tic Tacs

Setup:

Attach the pack of Tic Tacs to the headband so it is secure and won't fall off.

Instructions:

In this challenge, one player will attempt to shake all of the Tic Tacs out of the box using only his head. Place the headband on the contestant, open the box, and start the clock. Contestant can jump, dance, shake, and bang his head, but he cannot use his hands. If he empties the box in 60 seconds or less, he wins a prize.

Spiritual application:

What we put into our minds is what will come out of our mouths. Whatever is pure, noble, and good, think on such things.

CANDY FACE

Items needed:

A Necco wafer

Setup:

None

Instructions:

In this challenge, you will have to move a piece of candy across your face, using only the muscles of your face to maneuver it into your mouth. Place the candy on your forehead and start the clock. If you can get the candy to your mouth in 60 seconds or less, you win a prize. If you do not complete the challenge, you will also receive a prize: the rest of the pack of Necco wafers.

Spiritual application:

This game can be tied into Jesus' teaching about removing the specks and logs from our eyes, as the candy will inevitably get stuck at that part of the face.

BOUNCE THE RAINBOW

Items needed:

A bucket

Skittles

Setup:

Set the bucket about 8-10 feet from the student playing the game.

Instructions:

In this challenge, your task is to put a rainbow of flavors into the bucket by bouncing (or tossing) one of each color Skittles into the bucket. Keep on bouncing until you have one of each color in the bucket or until time expires. Hurry, you only have 60 seconds to make a rainbow.

For younger kids, reduce the number of colors they need to put into the bucket to only four.

Spiritual application:

Use this game with a lesson about Noah's Ark and the rainbow.

CIVILIZED CANDY

Items needed:

A knife and fork

A plate

A mini Snickers (or 3 Musketeers, to avoid peanut allergies!)

Set up:

Unwrap the Snickers and serve it on a nice plate.

Instructions:

It's time you learned some manners while eating a candy bar. In this challenge, the contestant has 60 seconds to cut a candy bar into 20 pieces, with a fork and a knife. No touching the candy bar with your fingers. That's poor manners. And if you do not finish in the allotted time, there will be no dessert.

Spiritual application:

Use this with a lesson about Jesus confronting the Pharisees about their legalism, judging others.

BLOW IT

Items needed:

Bubble gum

Setup:

None.

Instructions:

In this challenge, your task is to chew up a piece of bubble gum and to blow one good bubble before the 60 second time limit. If you are able to succeed, you will win a very sweet prize.

Spiritual application:

What goes into a person is what comes out. Focus on the things of the Spirit.

REVERSE CHOCOLATE

Items needed:

A Hershey bar broken into its individual pieces
The wrapper for the Hershey bar

Set up:

None

Instructions:

In this challenge, one player has 60 seconds to reassemble the Hershey bar and wrap it back up in its wrapper. If the player finishes the challenge in time, he wins a prize!

For smaller kids, don't break the candy bar all the way down, but leave it in larger pieces.

Spiritual application:

When life is hard and we feel broken, God can help put us back together.

COTTON CRAMMING

Items needed:

A bag of cotton candy
A small jar with a lid

Set up:

None.

Instructions:

Cotton candy is a big treat that's full of air. In this challenge, one person will race the clock to see if he/she can cram all of their cotton candy into a jar and seal it. Hurry, you only have 60 seconds to complete this challenge.

Spiritual application:

Don't settle for false teachings that are full of air.

HOW MANY LICKS?

Items needed:

A Tootsie Pop
Piece of Sandpaper

Setup:

None

Instructions:

This game will test your speed, stamina, and will power as you take on the hardest candy challenge ever - to "lick" your way to the center of a Tootsie Pop in 60 seconds or less. Since it could take more than 60 minutes using your tongue, use the sandpaper to try to find your way to the Tootsie Roll center. If you complete this challenge, you win Tootsie Pops for everyone.

Spiritual application:

God wants to be at the center of our lives.
